Ta Sannat is a small village situated along the southern coastline of the sister island of Gozo well known for its stunning cliffs falling vertically into the Mediterranean Sea its rich countryside and prehistorical remains with a prominent archeological find being it Tempju ta l Imramma dating back to 3800 3600 BC. This House of Character is one of a cluster of three homes having been built quite recently to excellent standards enjoying a lovely mix of the old and the new including wooden beams and patterned tiles. With a comfortable footprint a welcoming hallway leads onto an open plan spacious living dining area which enjoys a lovely wood burning fireplace excellent for the cooler winter months. A fully equipped kitchen together with the living area lead out to the garden which is home to a 34sqm pool together with a barbeque area ideal for entertaining. This level is also complimented by a spacious bedroom and bathroom with laundry facilities.

Accessed through a cantilevered spiral stone staircase which is undoubtedly a beautiful feature in this home are the master bedroom with an ensuite bathroom together with another bedroom and bathroom. Further complimenting this property is a bright and sunny room housing a six seater private jacuzzi undoubtedly a plus not usually found in this type of home. Being offered freehold and extremely well furnished ready to walk into this lovely residence has to be seen to be appreciated
