Welcome to this beautifully presented, semi-detached family home, nestled in the heart of Darlington's most coveted areas. Tower Road is a testament to thoughtful preservation and modern enhancement, boasting 5 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, set against a serene southeast-facing garden backdrop.

Standing outside, you'll be struck by the artistry of the architecture, the symmetry of its bay windows, and the genteel aura that exudes timeless elegance.

Enter through a welcoming hallway, which leads to a bright and airy living room adorned with large windows that infuse the space with natural light. It's a space where laughter has echoed and where the quiet moments of life have been savoured.

The traditional layout maintains an elegant flow as you move from the living room back through the hall and on to the extended dining area. This reimagined space seamlessly opens into a stunning modern kitchen; extended into a canvas for culinary creativity, with glances out to the garden that entices one to step into the embrace of the sun. Simply perfect for alfresco dining and entertainment.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts generously sized bedrooms alongside a well-appointed family bathroom, providing space for relaxation and privacy. The clever loft conversion introduces two additional bedrooms, offering flexibility for a growing family or a quiet home office setup.

Situated within easy reach of excellent local schools, the vibrant community of Cockerton, and the convenience of Darlington's town centre and major transport links, this home is ideally suited for families looking to upscale their living experience in a prime location.

Embrace the opportunity to reside in a property that combines traditional elegance with the comforts of contemporary living. Tower Road awaits a new chapter, perhaps with you at its heart.
