Rare chance to acquire a captivating townhouse from the 1920s in the highly desirable town of Rabat. Positioned on a 250 sqm plot this double fronted residence boasts generous living areas and a spacious garden ideal for hosting gatherings. The potential for transforming this residence into a dream family home is boundless.

The standout feature is the expansive garden offering the possibility of adding a swimming pool and BBQ area creating a serene retreat with panoramic views. Additionally the property provides the convenience of a garage at street level and well lit spacious living areas that open up to a charming garden adorned with orange and lemon trees. Boasting five bedrooms and four bathrooms and potential for expansion this property is a golden opportunity to craft your perfect living space. Seize the chance to own this gem ready for your personalized touch.
