Away from the resorts and you'll stumble across the country's rich natural landscape and interesting history, showcased in its handful of museums and stunning architecture.

ABOUT THE AREA

Smolyan is a town and ski resort in the south of Bulgaria near the border with Greece. It is the administrative and industrial centre of the Smolyan Province. The town is built along the narrow valley of the Cherna and the Byala river in the central Rhodope Mountains, making it the longest city in Bulgaria.

Smolyan is a small and picturesque town in the heart of the Rodope Mountains. This magnificent town enchants visitors with interesting combination of old and modern architecture, influenced by the majesty of the great mountain. Smolyan is just 15 kilometers away from the famous ski resort Pamporovo and 260 km south of Sofia. Plovdiv is just 103 km south of Plovdiv.

There are several preserved houses from the National revival period – Mermovata, Pridasova and some others.

The arc bridge (Beiska kupria) over Cherna River (the Black River) was built in XVIII century. The natural reserve 'Chinarat' – a 250 year old three.

The historical museum of the Middle parts of the Rodope Mountains and of course the biggest Planetarium in Bulgaria on Bulgaria Boulevard. The Rodope Mountains Smolyan is surrounded by numerous interesting sites, that worth to be visited.
