with the immense potential of historic, rustic buildings waiting to be restored. This complex is perfect for those seeking a tranquil and private life, a multi-generational family home, or an ambitious entrepreneurial venture in the tourism sector.

The property is a true hidden gem, located in a quiet position that is not visible from the neighborhood, providing an unparalleled sense of privacy. The entire complex is centered around a large internal courtyard, which has a double driveway entrance, ensuring convenient and practical access for multiple vehicles. This central courtyard is the heart of the estate, connecting the various buildings and creating a cohesive, functional space. The property is further enhanced by a private terraced garden, which is an ideal spot for relaxation, outdoor dining, and enjoying the magnificent views. Adjacent agricultural land, including woodlands, meadows, and vineyards, completes this idyllic picture, offering a piece of the quintessential Italian landscape.
