In the heart of the Alentejo, where the landscape is lost in the horizon, you will find this property full of authenticity and potential.

Composed of a traditional ruin and a plot located in front, this is a unique opportunity for those looking to recover a house of character, preserving the essence of Alentejo architecture and enjoying a privileged view over the vast plain.

The elevated location provides a wide and unobstructed landscape, where sunrise and sunset offer a different spectacle in each season of the year. An environment of absolute tranquility, ideal for own housing, holiday home or investment.

Inserted in a typical and welcoming village, the property benefits from the proximity of essential services, while maintaining the peace and rhythm of life characteristic of the Alentejo.

Property Highlights:

Ruin with high potential for rehabilitation.

Land in front of the house.

Panoramic view over the Alentejo plain.

Excellent sun exposure.
Quiet location and easy access.
Ideal for permanent living, holiday home or investment.

If you are looking for a place where authenticity, nature and landscape come together to create a truly special project, this could be the right opportunity.

Come and discover the charm of Mina do Bugalho and imagine the future of your home with one of the most beautiful views of the Alentejo.
