Rarely does a residence of this scale and privacy come to market in Iklin.

Set within an impressive footprint of approximately 1 120 sqm this fully detached bungalow presents a remarkable opportunity to acquire a substantial private home designed around space tranquillity and effortless single level living.

An elegant entrance hall introduces generous reception spaces with beautifully proportioned living and dining areas flowing into a fitted kitchen. The accommodation comprises three bedrooms including two with en suite facilities together with a main bathroom. Throughout the principal areas marble flooring lends the interiors a timeless sense of refinement.

Beyond the residence lies an exceptional private outdoor setting. Extensive gardens surround a beautiful swimming pool and expansive pool deck complemented by a dedicated BBQ and entertaining area. The scale and privacy of the grounds create an atmosphere rarely found within such a well connected residential location.

The lower level adds a further dimension to the property incorporating a large independent flatlet extensive storage and utility areas and a substantial six car garage. A private lift and staircase connect the two levels offering both convenience and versatility.

With its generous proportions secluded gardens private swimming pool and exceptional parking provision this is a residence that offers far more than accommodation it offers space privacy and a distinctive way of life.

A truly special opportunity to create an outstanding family home in one of Malta s most established residential communities.
