The city of Caldas da Rainha is located north of Lisbon (93.5 km via the A8) and southwest of Coimbra (128 km via the A1 IC36 A8).

A place to visit is the Republic Square (popularly known as "Fruit Square"), held every day, in the morning, in the open air, the only daily fruit and vegetable market in the country, practically unchanged since the end of the nineteenth century.

Even today, the city of Caldas da Rainha keeps as arms the coat of arms of Queen D. Leonor, flanked on the left by its own emblem (the shrimp tree) and on the right by the emblem of D. John II (the pelican). By keeping these weapons, the city is one of the few villages in the country to use a coat of arms prior to the normalization of municipal heraldry carried out in the mid-twentieth century, which is not in accordance with current legislation. - REF: 386/T/00103
