In the village of Sadina, near Popovo, Targovishte region.

The house has a garage, outbuildings and big land of 1470sq.m.

There is a garage area, parking space, fireplace, well, outbuildings, and fruit trees.

The village is in the region Targovishte-Targovishte is situated at the southern foot of Preslavka Mountain on the two banks of Vrana River 339 km northeast of Sofia.

During the last years Targovishte achieved serious economic progress which transformed the image of the town.

Its natural geographic situation helps the development of cultural- historical, spa, hunting, rural and eco tourism.

Targovishte is a regional centre and a famous wine region. History:

The historical findings show that the region was inhabited ever since the copper-stone epoch.

The old name of the town is Eski Fjumaya (Old Market) and was first mentioned in 1573 when the town was under Ottoma Rule. It formed as a trade centre and at the end of the 18th century Ksidjumaiski Fair was opened in the town.

During the Renaissance many Bulgarians settled in the oriental town and forced cultural and economic development. Many crafts flourish in the town.

A school, church and a community centre is opened in the town.

Targovishte became one of the revolutionary centers in the country.

The fair was also revived, known as the summer fair and exhibition for industrial goods. Sightseeing:

There are many lakes in the area and a small river goes through the village The City of Ruse is only 55 kg from the village where you can go fishing in the Danube.

Our Company has sold many houses in this village to people from all over the EU.

The house is in very good condition overall as you can see from the pictures and its main advantage - it is CHEAP, the land definitely worth its money
