About Zebbug

Zebbug is one of the oldest towns in Malta located in the Southern Region of Malta with a population of around 11 000 people. The village is around 3.5 km long.

Word Zebbug means olives in Maltese. In centuries past olive trees were cultivated on the hills where the village stands. The area is known for its authentic Maltese atmosphere which makes it the perfect area for anyone looking for a unique budget friendly and less crowded business destination.

The best time of the year to visit and experience this village is during the feast of St Philip on the 2nd Sunday of June.
