Big stone house of 107 m² in the deep south-west of Hungary on a plot of over 3,700 m².

Nice spacious. House offers a lot of space, but also outbuildings and two plots of (1,640 and 2,148 m²) of a total of 3,788 m². This makes it a nice wide garden.

You enter the house from the side in the central hall and next to it are 4 rooms. To the left you enter a second hall and the kitchen and bathroom are adjacent to it. You can then you can go in or out the houses again.

So two plots and the plot where the house is located is 1,640 m².

There is also a garage, summer kitchen and some sheds. In addition, a second plot.

Electricity, water and gas are available. The house is heated with gas convectors, but heating with a wood stove is also possible. For drainage there is a connection to the sewerage system. Internet and/or telephone connection is possible.

The house is in reasonable condition and is located almost at the end of the village.

You will find Vízvár all the way in the southwest, a stone\'s throw from the Drava and Croatia. More than 600 people live in the village of Vízvár and you can easily do your daily shopping there. For better shopping, Barcs, the big city, is 30 minutes away, or you can go to Nagyatád, 20 minutes away. There is also a nice thermal bath there.
