Originally built before 1951 and updated in 2008, this spacious stone cottage offers a charming south-facing countryside getaway, situated just meters away from a quaint hamlet. Nestled in a serene location, the farmhouse boasts tranquillity and natural beauty. Spread across approximately 2500m², the plot features typical native dry fruit trees, with the house positioned atop a slight elevation, offering views over the land and to the river.

The current layout features a generous entrance lobby accessible from the covered terrace, along with two double bedrooms and a master bedroom with en-suite facilities. Additionally, there's a family bathroom, a fitted kitchen, a dining area, and a cozy sitting room complete with a wood burner. Ample storage spaces are integrated within the house, including attic access, while outside, an old, weathered pigsty adds character to the surroundings.
