Puerto de Mazarrón is a paradise for diving enthusiasts thanks to its crystal-clear waters. You can spot dolphins, sperm whales and pilot whales in this area. In addition, the region offers numerous hiking and cycling routes, allowing you to take full advantage of the impressive coastal and mountain scenery. You can also visit the abandoned mines, a unique experience for the adventurous.

The area also offers kilometers of Blue Flag sandy beaches, first-class services such as large supermarkets, banks, a medical center, boutiques and an atmospheric marina with excellent bars and restaurants.

Camposol, a 15-minute drive away, has two shopping centers with supermarkets, various stores, medical facilities, a golf course and a wide range of restaurants and social events with live music.

Start of construction: January 2025 - Completion: January 2026
