Are you looking for a coastal-style house close to the beach, shops and services but don't have a millionaire's budget? Then look no further. This beautiful semi-detached house with 4 bedrooms, kitchen and living room needs renovation but, once finished, will be a charming coastal house like the ones you see on the Ile de Ré. On a quiet part of La Tremblade, all shops and the weekly market are within walking distance. There is a garage and off street parking, beautiful gardens with a magnificent lime tree, a swimming pool may be possible subject to planning permission. Please contact us for a viewing.
