This 2 storey townhouse with typical Andalusian tiles is located in the village of Santaella, in the province of Cordoba in Andalusia, Spain, a quiet village surrounded by stunning countryside but only a short drive to the vibrant towns of Puente Genil and Lucena and sits only 30minutes away from Cordoba, with all the commercial outlets, bars, restaurants, and transport connections. The property sits on the outskirts of the town but within walking distance to centre and amenities. The central hallway leads to a good sized lounge a separate dining room, a well-fitted kitchen, a guest toilet, a patio, and a storage room. On the first floor, we have a family bathroom, 3 single bedrooms and a further 2 double bedrooms with a balcony and countryside views. This is a great value property in this popular and tranquil location.
