Portimão is a city facing the sea, with Africa already on the other side. In addition to the fantastic beaches, bathed by the warmest water of the south coast, you can taste the fish and seafood dishes in the local restaurants, take a boat ride along the estuary and the sea, or even visit the huge cultural heritage built of the city.

It was a preponderant port village and currently has the third largest sea port (in passengers) receiving many cruise ships, especially in the summer.

In other words, the superb panorama, evoking the perfection of the Greek landscape, the beautiful cut of the rocks, the warm climate, the mountains, the sea, are more than enough reasons to visit this city.

Port city in the Algarve region, in the south of Portugal. It is known for the historic center, the lively marina and the proximity to several beaches. The Portimão Museum is housed in a restored nineteenth-century cannery, with exhibits on local history. The church of Nossa Senhora da Conceição, of Gothic style, has tiles. To the south is Praia da Rocha, with ochre cliffs as a backdrop and the medieval fort of Santa Catarina de Ribamar.

It is located a few kilometers from Faro airport, Portimão, Alvor and Mexilhoeira Grande are the three parishes of a municipality with 183 square kilometers of area and a fixed population of more than 50 thousand people.

The most beautiful beaches of Portimão stretch for eight kilometers of fine golden sand, harmonious ochre cliffs, with a cozy sun, the blue sky and the crystal clear green sea, which create idyllic scenarios for your holidays in the Algarve. Discover the streets and history of the city of Portimão, let yourself be enchanted by the historical and cultural heritage that enriches every moment. Be amazed by the heritage of prehistoric civilizations in Alcalar.
