Location:

Giano dell'Umbria is a medieval village located in a panoramic position, at the top of a hill overlooking the Umbrian Valley, at the foot of the Martani Mountains. Rich in history and charm, it boasts a well-preserved historic center, remarkable churches, and a breathtakingly beautiful surrounding landscape.

There are all the necessary services such as a small bar/grocery store and a municipal pharmacy.

Giano dell'Umbria is also a city of olive oil and wine, located between Spoleto and Todi, a few kilometers from Montefalco and Bevagna. It is an important stop on both the Sagrantino Road and the Umbria DOP Olive Oil Regional Road. Charming villages, rich in history and art, surround the area, such as Montecchio, Moriano, and Castagnola. Bastardo, on the other hand, is the only modern center, a commercial hub, and home to one of the area's weekly markets.
