Nestled within the breathtaking landscape of the Sierra Espuña Regional Park, this modern two-story detached villa in Aledo, Murcia, offers an unparalleled blend of luxury, privacy, and sustainable living. The property, standing on a fully walled plot of 5,200 square meters, provides a secure and secluded sanctuary with magnificent, panoramic views of the surrounding mountains and the historic, medieval town of Aledo. Its prime location is just a two-minute drive from the town, offering both tranquility and easy access to local amenities.

This meticulously designed villa, with a total living area of 350 m2, is built for flexible living. Its layout can accommodate a large family, be divided into separate living spaces for guests, or even be used as a rental property. The villa is distributed across three levels: a ground floor of 146 m2, an upper floor of 59 m2, and a spacious underbuild/basement of 145 m2. The property is a testament to quality craftsmanship, with the entire house tiled throughout in a beautiful light-colored, simulated wood effect. The annual local authority tax is 1049 euros, making it a very affordable property to maintain.
