Located in the charming town of Tibi, just a half-hour drive from the vibrant city of Alicante, this 720-square-meter plot offers endless possibilities for both residential and commercial development. Currently, the plot houses an old plastic factory built in the 1970s. The building can be removed to make way for a modern vision—whether it's a dream home, a commercial enterprise, or an innovative investment project.

For Home Builders

Imagine designing and building your custom home in this peaceful and picturesque area. With ample space, you can create a luxury villa, a stunning garden, a private pool, and even additional features like a garage or outdoor entertainment area. The tranquil surroundings and excellent location make it ideal for a family residence or holiday retreat.

For investors and Entrepreneurs

This plot is a rare find for those looking to start or expand their business. The generous size provides room for various projects such as:

A boutique hotel or guesthouse
