This lovely two bedroomed home is nestled in a beautiful hamlet amidst the stunning Monts de Blond. On the ground floor, there is a lovely living area that doubles as a lounge and dining room. There is also a kitchen, toilet and internal access to the garage. Ascending to the upper level reveals two bathrooms, a spacious landing area that could double as an office space, and two generously sized bedrooms. Additionally, there's a quaint mezzanine with a cozy ambiance, albeit with a low ceiling. Heating is provided by a wood burner in the lounge complemented by oil central heating. Externally, the property is impeccably maintained, featuring double-glazed windows throughout. The house is attached to a substantial barn, offering ample storage, parking, and potential workshop space. A well sits directly in front of the house. The property also encompasses 1154m² of land and 3320m² of woodland, just a short stroll from the house as well as a vegetable garden with mains water available. Ideally situated between the picturesque villages of Blond and Mortemart, this residence is located in an unspoiled and breathtaking hamlet. Blond village, a mere five minutes away, provides essential amenities, while the larger town of Bellac, accessible within 15 minutes, offers a comprehensive array of services, including supermarkets, DIY stores, eateries, gift shops, pharmacies, medical facilities, schools and a mainline station.
