Portimão is a city facing the sea, with Africa already on the other side. In addition to the fantastic beaches, bathed by the warmer water on the south coast, you can taste fish and seafood dishes in local restaurants, take a boat ride along the estuary and the sea, or even visit the city's enormous built cultural heritage.

It was a preponderant port town and currently has the third largest sea port (in passengers) receiving many cruise ships, especially in the summer.

In other words, the superb panorama, evoking the perfection of the Greek landscape, the beautiful cut of the rocks, the warm climate, the mountains, the sea, are more than enough reasons to visit this city.
