With exceptional views, bespoke interiors, privacy, and a large private garden, within a splendid 18th-century estate. Nestled in a charming 18th-century rural complex, this 81 sq m/ 872 sq ft property beautifully combines the authentic charm of Tuscan tradition with elegant contemporary details. A striking stone arch leads into a shared historic courtyard, enhanced by an ancient well that evokes the timeless atmosphere of the village. The residence is arranged over two floors. On the ground floor there is the entrance and staircase leading to the heart of the home. A refined wrought-iron staircase leads to the upper floor, where the main living areas are located. The bright living room is dominated by a substantial stone and brick fireplace, the focal point that adds warmth and character to the space. Herringbone terracotta floors and whitewashed exposed wooden beam ceilings enhance the authenticity of the rooms. The modern and functional kitchen stands out for the contrast between white cabinetry and lime-green finishes, creating a pleasing balance between tradition and contemporary design. The master bedroom enjoys a wonderful open view over the surrounding countryside, framed by wooden double-glazed windows that ensure comfort and tranquility. On the same level there is also an elegant bathroom with travertine-effect finishes and a large crystal shower, plus a practical storage room. Outside, the property features a large private garden of 4,351 sq m/46,834 sq ft, ideal for fully enjoying the peace and beauty of the Tuscan landscape. Completely renovated in 2000 and sold fully furnished, the house harmoniously blends the historic character of the original architecture with modern comforts, including broadband internet connection. An authentic retreat immersed in nature, perfect for those who wish to experience the most genuine Tuscany without sacrificing comfort.
