performance of the property.

The location stands out for its proximity to essential services, dining options and local commerce. Pharmacy and restaurants are within walking distance, making the daily routine easier.

Access to public transport is also favourable, with bus stops within walking distance. For leisure and culture, there are points of interest in the vicinity, including the Cine-Teatro da Nazaré and the Parque da Pedralva.

The proximity to Praia da Nazaré makes this property especially appealing to those looking for quality of life and mobility on foot, in a well-served urban environment.
