City area

Kreuzberg is a central and multicultural district, linked to Friedrichshain by the famous bridge Oberbaumbrücke, listed as a historical monument. Behind the Spree, the Wrangelkiez is a trendy area with many bars and restaurants. To the south of Kreuzberg, the Bergmankiez is a lively district with many shopping streets. There is a large covered market, the Marheineke Markthalle. Viktoriapark, perched on a hill, offers a panoramic view of Berlin. For culture buffs, the Hebbel Am Ufer offers a rich program of contemporary dance and theatre. Several companies, such as Deliveroo, were seduced by the dynamism of Kreuzberg and installed their headquarters.
